

CREW 2001 PERMISSION SLIP
Northern Michigan Wilderness Adventure June 27 – July 2, 2012
Permission slips and money are due no later than June 1, 2012

EVENT: This is a six day adventure which includes camping, swimming, hiking and exploring the area along the National Lakeshore including Sleeping Bear Dune in Northwest Michigan. The Crew will spend 2 days backpacking on North Manitou Island, a designated remote wilderness area. Participants in this activity will experience a moderate level of physical activity. Limited cell phone service is expected in some locations. Current BSA Annual Health and Medical Records are required to have Parts A, B & C completed. See <http://trooponeakron.org/whats happening.html> for the details.

AGENDA: Wednesday June 27, the Crew will drive to Empire, Michigan. Thursday will be spent exploring the National Lakeshore including a dune climb, swimming and/or lazy river tubing on the Platte River and a tour of the National Seashore Lifesaving Rescue Station Museum. Friday we will board the ferry to N. Manitou Island for 2 days of backpacking. Leave No Trace protocols will be strictly adhered to on the island. Sunday we return to the mainland for a tour of the Coast Guard Air Station in Traverse City, swimming and a walking tour of the city. Monday, July 2 will be the return drive.

WHERE: Empire, Michigan, Leland, Michigan, Traverse City Michigan, Manitou Island, Michigan

LEAVING: Wednesday, June 27, 2012

RETURNING: Monday, July 2, 2012 (estimated return time: 5:00 p.m.)
Crew members will call you upon returning to the church.

COST: $260.00 per person (make checks payable to Boy Scout Troop ONE)

GEAR: Each Crew member must be in uniform (crew t-shirt and khaki pants or shorts). The weather could be hot and sunny or wet and rainy, so be prepared. Dressing in layers is important. Good quality waterproof boots are required as well as backpacking gear.
